Table of Contents

1. Institutional Information
2. Academic Regulations
3. Student Conduct
4. Student Discipline
5. Student Rights and Responsibilities
6. Student Organizations and Activities
7. Student Services and Welfare

1. Institutional Information

The institution aims to provide accessible, relevant, and well-balanced education while developing competent, responsible, and community-oriented graduates.

Vision. A learning institution producing competent and responsible graduates.

Mission. To provide relevant educational programs, supportive learning services, and opportunities for academic, personal, and civic development.

Core values. Integrity, respect, responsibility, excellence, service, and accountability.

2. Academic Regulations

2.1 Admission and Enrollment

Students must satisfy admission requirements, submit authentic documents, and complete enrollment within the prescribed period. The institution may defer enrollment when required credentials are incomplete.

2.2 Academic Load and Prerequisites

Students shall follow the approved curriculum and observe prerequisite subjects. Overload may be permitted for graduating or academically qualified students with the required approvals.

2.3 Attendance

Regular and punctual attendance is required. Students must provide an acceptable written explanation for unavoidable absences. Excessive absences may result in being dropped from a subject in accordance with institutional rules.

2.4 Adding, Dropping, and Changing Subjects

Adding or dropping subjects requires the prescribed form and approval of the appropriate academic officials. Requests submitted after the permitted period may be denied or treated under the applicable grading rules.

2.5 Grades and Incomplete Ratings

Grades must be based on valid academic requirements. An incomplete rating may be issued when a student with passing standing fails to complete a required final assessment or course requirement for a valid reason. The student is responsible for completing the requirement within the prescribed period.

2.6 Graduation

Candidates for graduation must complete the curriculum, academic and residency requirements, required documents, and other institutional clearances.

3. Student Conduct

3.1 Respectful Behavior

Students shall treat classmates, faculty, staff, visitors, and campus personnel with courtesy and respect. Harassment, threats, intimidation, and disruptive behavior are prohibited.

3.2 Identification and Campus Access

Students must carry a valid institutional identification card when on campus and must not lend or use another person's identification card.

3.3 Dress and Appearance

Students shall observe reasonable dress and appearance standards communicated by the institution and their academic department. Approved exemptions may be requested through the proper office.

3.4 Facilities and Devices

Students must maintain cleanliness, conserve institutional resources, and follow classroom, laboratory, library, and activity-area rules. Personal devices must be used in a manner that does not disrupt learning.

3.5 Visitors and Activities

Visitors and student activities must comply with campus access, safety, and approval procedures.

4. Student Discipline

4.1 Purpose

Discipline aims to protect the learning environment, promote accountability, and prevent repeated violations while respecting due process.

4.2 Examples of Violations

Violations may include academic dishonesty, bullying or harassment, threats or violence, property damage, misuse of identification cards, unauthorized activities, possession of prohibited items, and serious disruption of classes.

4.3 Disciplinary Interventions

Depending on the nature and seriousness of the violation, interventions may include warning, written reprimand, conference, community or campus service, restitution, suspension, or dismissal, subject to applicable rules.

4.4 Due Process

A student accused of a violation shall receive notice of the allegation, a reasonable opportunity to respond, and a decision from the authorized office or committee. Records shall be handled confidentially to the extent permitted by policy.

5. Student Rights and Responsibilities

5.1 Student Rights

Students have the right to accessible academic information, fair evaluation, respectful treatment, reasonable opportunity to be heard, access to approved student services, and participation in recognized student organizations and activities.

5.2 Student Responsibilities

Students are responsible for knowing and following official policies, attending classes, completing academic requirements, protecting institutional property, respecting the rights of others, presenting truthful information, and complying with lawful instructions of authorized personnel.

5.3 Feedback and Complaints

Students may raise concerns through the appropriate academic, student-affairs, guidance, or administrative office. Complaints should be factual, respectful, and supported by relevant information.

6. Student Organizations and Activities

Recognized organizations may be academic, non-academic, cultural, athletic, civic, or other approved groups. Organizations must complete accreditation or recognition requirements, maintain an adviser when required, and secure approval before conducting activities or using institutional facilities.

Activity proposals should identify the purpose, date, venue, participants, responsible officers, safety measures, and required budget. Financial reports and activity reports must be submitted within the prescribed period.

Organizations shall not use violence, public shaming, hazing, or unauthorized collection of funds. Off-campus activities must comply with institutional safety requirements.

7. Student Services and Welfare

The institution may provide guidance and counseling, student affairs assistance, academic advising, library and learning resources, health and safety support, career guidance, and student-development activities.

Students seeking assistance should approach the appropriate office and provide accurate information. Emergency or urgent safety concerns must be reported immediately to authorized campus personnel.

Version Notes

V1 represents the older, compact policy structure. It contains the core rules but has fewer digital workflows and less explicit guidance for online services, AI-assisted learning, incident tracking, and policy feedback.
